

Figure 2, Source Data 3. Original membranes corresponding to Figure2, panel 2J. Rainbow pre-stained protein molecular weight standards were used as size references. Each immunoblot clearly displayed the marker bands with their assigned molecular weights, and the expected molecular weight of the target protein—as well as the catalog number and source of the corresponding primary antibody—was annotated on the respective blot.

Fig. 2J

