

A

Transient and sustained signals from different effectors at the same time consistent with competition in model

B

Very small changes in effector parameters can change relative timing of transient effector signals in model

C

Example of three waves of effector activity produced in model by titration of effector abundance and binding parameters

