

Figure 5 - Figure Supplement 1: The 12-fold “teeth” at the necks of FHV spherules. A series of z-plane slices of a cryo-tomogram focusing on FHV crowns shows that even without the greatly-increased resolution from subtomogram averaging, subsets of the 12 teeth densities are readily visible surrounding the central turret structure in the original tomograms. Scale bar = 10 nm.