

Fig 8 – figure supplement 1. Steady state activity as a function of the stimulus background.
 At high stimulus background, the steady state activity of the receptor complex is a_0 (here, $1/2$).
 The model is unable to adapt perfectly to lower stimulus backgrounds, since ε is bounded by ε_L .
 This causes the steady state activity to decrease.