

Figure 4 – figure supplement 1. Non-metric Multidimensional scaling (NMDS) on the liver transcriptome data showed that clusters were formed based on the Jaccard metric, between the resistant and sensitive fish lines at 12°C and 24°C. Size of the dot is relative to the goodness of fit for the first principal coordinate times 100 using the Jaccard metric.