
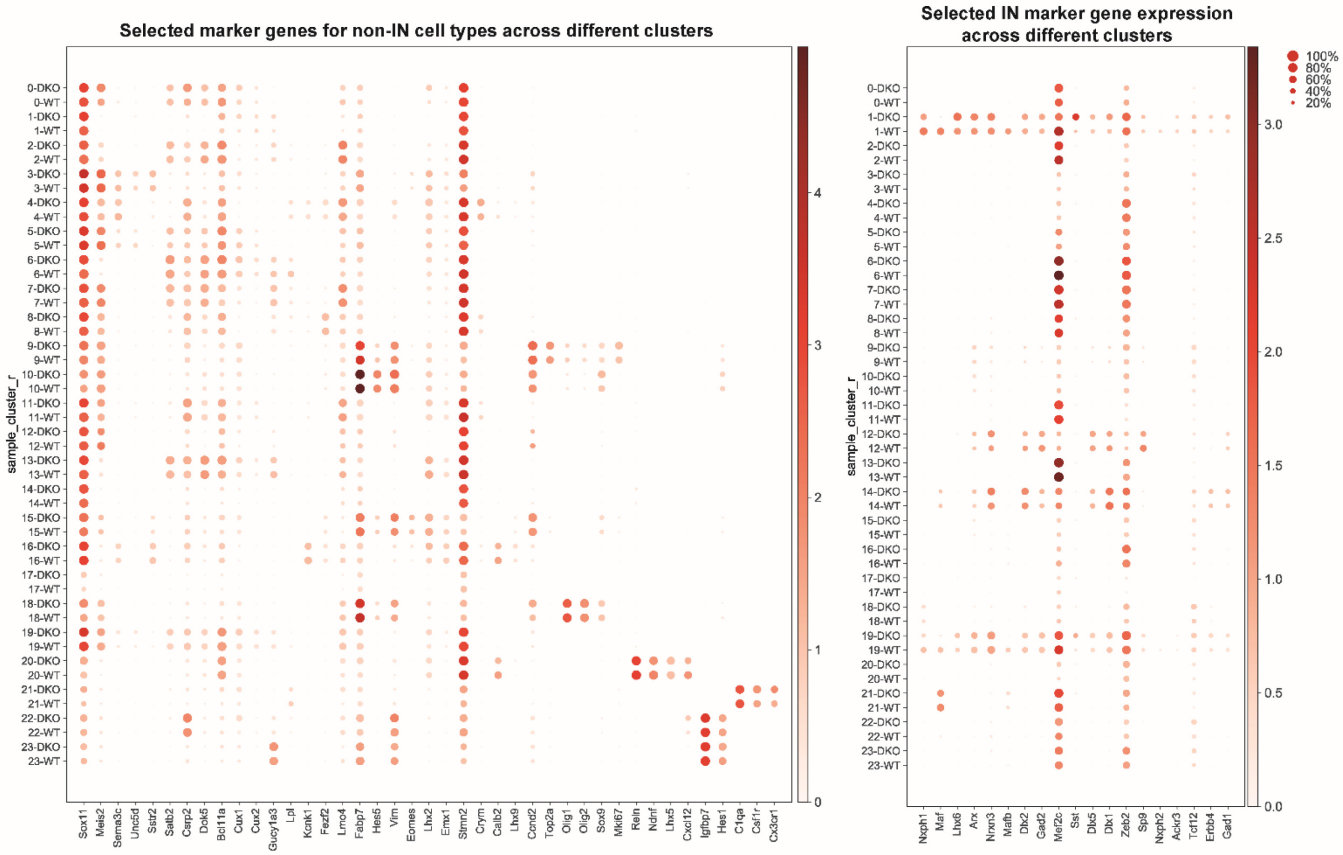

Figure 1 – figure supplement 3. Dotplots of non-IN and IN population by selected marker genes

Dotplots showing non-IN population (left) and IN population (right) of WT and cDKO based upon selected marker genes. The darkness of the dot positively corresponds to gene expression level and the size of the dot corresponds to the proportion of the cells within each cluster that express specific marker genes.