

Positive diagnosis (YES) "In regard to the patient's history of atrial fibrillation, she reports that she had occasional short episodes of a rapid rate that lasts a minute" "He has severe tricuspid regurgitation due to a partial flail tricuspid leaflet and a history of anemia."	Negative diagnosis (NO) "She has no history of chronic lung disease, rheumatic fever, or endocarditis." "Although her right ventricle is compromised she is quite well compensated hemodynamically without evidence of right ventricular failure."
Suspected Diagnosis (MAYBE) "However, this could also be due to interstitial lung diseases such as sarcoidosis, hypersensitivity pneumonitis, or Langerhans cell histiocytosis." "Because of the swelling I wonder about the possibility of cor pulmonale and underlying pulmonary hypertension."	Alternate Context (OTHER) "I have also sent him a copy of our recent paper on smoking-related interstitial lung diseases." "She has no family history of lung fibrosis or other lung diseases."