

Fig. 7-figure supplement 5: Our mean-field model successfully recapitulated several previously established features of generalized seizures, including a large rise in cortical firing rate (A), a loss of the information-richness of cortical LFPs as indexed by Lempel-Ziv complexity (B), and strongly periodic neural electrodynamics (C - note that the dashed red line at LLE=0 corresponds to edge-of-chaos criticality).